PREFACE

This study book is intended to aid a Bible class in the study of Paul’s epistle to the Philippians. The material herein will not take the student on a verse-by-verse analysis of the text, but is intended to bring attention to significant portions of the text. Rather than providing textual insight from the writer, the booklet has been designed with questions to provoke thought and further study on the student’s part, so that principles and lessons applicable for the Christian’s life can be learned.

The usefulness of the material, and the success of the Bible class is primarily dependent upon the preparation which is given by each participant. Verse references from Philippians are provided with each question. These are given as a starting point for answering the questions. Seldom will a question be fully answered and all the relevant points of a discussion exhausted by the given verses. Students are encouraged to look beyond the designated texts for related passages which will help to answer questions and reveal the lessons to be learned from the inspired record. Some questions given may require diligent investigation on the student’s part to completely answer.

It is my hope that the questions provided will touch on all the important lessons which can be gleaned by the child of God today from these books. However, the class should not be limited to these questions. Perhaps segments of text which the given questions do not directly deal with, or detailed points which are found in the text will provoke questions on the student’s part. Such questions are welcomed and encouraged. Though the intent of this class material is to benefit us for Christian living today, the class should also be conducted in such a manner that we also come to a better appreciation of the events and customs which are found in the times of old.

May this workbook be used to the glory of God and the strengthening of saints.

2. Define the following terms: (1:1)
   a. “…saints…”
   b. “…bishops…”
   c. “…deacons…”

3. Describe the frequency of Paul’s prayers for the Philippian brethren. (1:3-4)

4. What is the “…fellowship in the gospel…” Paul speaks of? (1:5)

5. Paul was confident that “…He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ…” What is the “good work”? What is “the day of Jesus Christ” (1:6)
6. Discuss Paul’s relationship with the Philippian brethren as expressed in 1:7-8.

7. Paul’s primary prayer for the Philippians is “…that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment…” What does that mean? (1:9)

8. Three additional points are mentioned, which are secondary elements to his prayer. Discuss each: (1:10-11)
   a. “…that you may approve the things that are excellent…”
   b. “…that you may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ…”
   c. “…being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ…”

PHILIPPIANS 1:12-30

1. Discuss the types of “...things which happened...” to Paul? How have these things “...turned out for the furtherance of the gospel...”? (1:12-14)

2. Why should Paul’s ‘misfortunes’ be the cause for other Christians to increase in confidence and boldness? (1:14)

3. The apostle identifies two persuasions of preachers who have come to light on account of his sufferings for the cause of Christ. What makes these to differ? (1:15-17)

4. Paul is satisfied that the gospel is preached, “...whether in pretense or in truth...” However, what good can come from those who preach the gospel as disguise to fulfill their own selfishness? (1:18)

5. Paul KNOWS that through the prayers of the saints, the supply of the Spirit of Christ and his boldness in Christ, he will be granted “deliverance”. What is this “deliverance”? (1:19-20)

6. The writer reveals that whether by life or death, Christ will be magnified in his body. How so? (1:20)
7. Expressing his perspective of life and death, Paul stated, “For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain...” Discuss the importance of this declaration. (1:21)

9. In other epistles, when Paul expressed greetings from himself to the saints, we find specific people mentioned (i.e. Romans 16:3-15; Colossians 4:15-17; 2 Timothy 4:18). Why, with the obviously close relationship Paul has with the Philippians does he merely give the general statement, “Greet every saint in Christ Jesus.”? (4:21)
